

Legacy Sunday is a unique Sunday in the life of our church every year. On Legacy Sunday, we ask our church family to pray about bringing a special financial gift, above and beyond regular tithes, to forward the mission of the Decade of Love. The Decade of Love reveals a lot about the heart of our church. It is our ten-year strategy for how we're going about reaching Northwest Arkansas, America, and the world for Jesus Christ.

Key Passage: Acts 13:1-3

Discussion Questions:

1. What are the 'Four Lanes' of the Decade of Love? What encouraged you the most from Legacy Sunday?
2. How does C.T. Studd's quote, "The light that shines the farthest shines the brightest at home," influence our missional approach as a church? Why is this strategy important?
3. What parallels exist between the church in Antioch (Acts 11-13) and the mission of our church today?
4. Why are we focused on the next generation through initiatives like student camp and C3 Send?
5. What is the significance of our commitment to provide fully funded scholarships for our seminary students as we aim to launch God-called men and women into ministry in response to Matthew 9:37? How does this align with our mission in the Decade of Love?
6. We have a lot of "challenges" as a church because God's favor is upon us. Why must we keep our missional vision and the Decade of Love on our hearts?
7. What role does giving tithes and the annual Legacy Offering play in our church's ability to fulfill our mission and the Decade of Love?
8. How does the irony of Paul's relationship with the Antioch church emphasize the gospel's transformative power? What does this have to say about the gospel's power at work in our lives?
9. What about this study has challenged you most? What's your biggest takeaway?